1. Since 1952, all students who have been released from military service have been recalled. Even those already working in their professions must now attend military training courses which last a half day and extend over a long period of time.
2. A young man exempt from service as a teacher and employed on the editorial staff of the Viata Sindicala, whose exemption had already been renewed several times, was called up in 1952 to attend military training every morning.
